MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, Policy and Plans Group

STAT ATTENTION: [redacted]

FROM: Deputy Director of Security (P&M)

SUBJECT: The February 1984 DDA Quarterly Review

With respect to your note of 5 December 1983, I would suggest that we might give some preliminary thoughts to some of the following items for the next DDA quarterly review:

* The new 28 minute Director of Security film on "Personnel Security," which is very well done; covers a lot of significant territory in the clearance/problem case area; and also provides a plug for SEG security awareness endeavors.

STAT * The preliminary impact [redacted] might be covered by the Director of Security--the advantages and disadvantages.

* A presentation on significant operational polygraphs within the last 6 - 12 months. The key point here is that the DDA has heard a considerable amount about the polygraph school, polygraph space, renovations, slotting, and applicant screening. [redacted] STAT

[redacted] STAT

STAT * A [redacted] presentation on new initiatives to protect Agency buildings and personnel in light of the terrorist threat. This issue is of considerable current concern in the Agency, and Bob presents a good image in this general area.

* A presentation on the Area Security Officer program. This might be addressed in different ways--either from the perspective of the C/OPS/PTAS, or from the standpoint of an officer with significant responsi-

STAT bility in this area. [redacted] come to mind.

My key point is that we should seek out items of some significance which don't always come to the attention of senior DDA management. I think the above items are worthy of some discussion, in competition with other recommended topics.
